Lutheran Advocacy Ministry-NM 2018 Advocacy Conference

Saturday, November 17
8:30 am – 1:00 pm
St. Paul Lutheran Church
 1100 Indian School Rd NE
Albuquerque

Plan now to attend!

Breakout session topics will include advocacy basics as well as issues related to our Advocacy Agenda that are expected to come up during the 2019 state legislative session.

The conference is open to everyone interested in learning more about advocating on public policies impacting our many neighbors living in poverty and with hunger.

Keynote Speaker: Rev. Amy Reumann

Pastor Reumann is the Director of Advocacy for the ELCA, where she leads domestic, international, environmental, and corporate social responsibility portfolios in Washington D.C, and 14 state capitols. Reumann formerly served as director of the Lutheran Advocacy Ministry in Pennsylvania, director for Urban Coalition ministry in the Greater Milwaukee Synod, and as parish pastor. Reumann holds degrees from Muhlenberg College in religion and international affairs, a Master of Divinity from the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago, and a Master of Sacred Theology from General Theological Seminary.
