The Presbytery of Santa Fe: A Community Collaborating in Worship, Education, and Mission

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved. (Acts 2:42-47)

of the Presbytery of Santa Fe

Who We Are as an Entity

The Presbytery of Santa Fe (hereinafter referred to as the “Presbytery” or the “Corporation”) is the governing body of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) in the geographical area described in the Bylaws.

The Presbytery is a New Mexico not-for-profit corporation established under the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), the Articles of Incorporation of the Presbytery, the Bylaws of the Presbytery, and applicable laws of the federal government of the United States of America and of the State of New Mexico. In all matters of ecclesial government, the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) is the highest authority.

The Presbytery as a dynamic council is constituted by the (1) Ruling Elder commissioners elected by congregational councils and (2) Ministers of the Word and Sacrament on the roll of Presbytery. The powers of Presbytery in its governance of congregations and of its Teaching Elder members are described and limited by the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

Offices of the Presbytery are on the campus of First Presbyterian Church, Albuquerque. Mailing address is 217 Locust NE, Albuquerque, New Mexico, 87102.
